

The Arts Healing

for the body, mind and spirit

Creatively Coping with Cancer: Using the Arts to Support Families in the Healing Journey

Practitioners of varied therapeutic arts disciplines will describe and demonstrate how music and art may help patients and their families during cancer treatment. You'll learn about the role of creativity in coping and why art-making is helpful during challenging times, and you'll have a chance to experience how music enhances the healing connection between the mind and the body.

All are welcome
